Notice of Local Option Election.

Notice of a Special Election, to be held under the provisions of Article 3, of Chapter 63, of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1909, commonly known as the Local Option Law, to determine whether or not spirituous and intoxicating liquors, including wine and beer, shall be sold, furnished, or given away, within the limits of Iron County, in the State of Missouri.

Be it remembered that on the 9th day of April, 1914, the same being the eleventh day of the February Term of the County Court of said Iron County, Missouri, among other proceedings, a petition was filed and received by said Court, signed by Mann Ringo et al., praying for a special election to be held in said County, to determine whether or not spirituous and intoxicating liquors, including wine and beer, should be sold, furnished or given away, within the limits of said County; and on the 9th day of April, 1914, at said term of said Court the following among other proceedings were had and entered of record, to wit:

Now come Mann Ringo et al. and present their petition to the Court, praying for a special election to be held in Iron County, Missouri, as provided in Article 3, Chapter 63, of the Revised Statutes of Missouri, 1909, commonly known as the Local Option Law, to determine whether or not spirituous and intoxicating liquors, including wine and beer, shall be sold, furnished, or given away, within the limits of said County, and the Court having seen and heard such petition, and having examined the poll books of the last previous general election held in said County, and having compared the names on said poll books with the names on said petition, doth find that said petition is signed by more than one-tenth of the qualified voters of said County which are and were qualified to vote for members of the legislature therein, at the last previous general election held therein, and that there is not any city or town in said County, at this time, having a population of twenty-five hundred inhabitants or more.

It is, therefore, ordered by the Court that a special election be held in said County at the usual voting precincts therein at which general elections for state officers are held, on the 10th day of May, 1914, said date being within forty days from the date of the filing of said petition presented to this Court, to determine whether or not spirituous and intoxicating liquors, including wine and beer, shall be sold, furnished, or given away, within the limits of said County, and all persons voting at said election who are against the sale of intoxicating liquors shall have written or printed on their ballots, "AGAINST THE SALE OF INTOXICATING LIQUORS," and all those who are in favor of the sale of such intoxicating liquors shall have written or printed on their ballots, "FOR THE SALE OF INTOXICATING LIQUORS."

It is further ordered that said election shall be conducted, the returns thereof made, and the result thereof ascertained and determined, according, in all respects, with the laws of this State, governing general elections for county officers, and the result thereof shall be entered upon the records of this Court, and the expenses of said election shall be paid out of the County Treasury, as in the case of the election of county officers.

It is further ordered that the Clerk of this Court shall cause notice of said election to be published in the IRON COUNTY REGISTER, a weekly newspaper published in said County, and that said notice shall be published in said newspaper for four consecutive weeks, the last insertion shall be within ten days next before the day of said election.

A true copy of the record:
Attest, with seal, this 11th day of April, 1914.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.
